BRING ME SUNSHINE

by Paul Smith

ANNIE – 60s

It's very dismal out there isn't it?

Not just the weather.

Look at the people in the street, in the shops, on the bus or train.

Miserable as sin!

'Cheer up' I say to people!

Things can always be worse!

Mr and Mrs Drab look fed up as they go about their daily business.

I don't subscribe to the dull side of life. I don't look at the negatives.

I don't deal in beige or fawn or grey.

I deal in sunshine.

That's all we need.

It brings a smile to the face and a skip to the step.

Smile as you work!

Laugh in the face of adversity.

Brighten the lives of everyone.

Bring them your own ray of sunshine.

Wear yellow!

Every day. In every way.

Yellow makes people smile.
